

Black and Gold

Dear Bob:
Man! Another year has passed, just can't see go this summer. Take care,

Wish, I your friend (can't write cause I didn't go to bed until last night)

#23

Best of luck always.
Continue being the "quiet one" —
Jo Okey

With all good wishes
to a very nice person.
Happy summer!
Laura Martin

Best Wishes,
H. Vance Solomon

Robert,
You know you were my pride and joy,
You still are Remember - I shall always wish for you
the very best.
Mrs. K. Atkinson

Wishing you the best, always

Dedication

To Mr. Ralph Walker...whose partiality for waving batons and tweed suits...love of music-all types-and friendliness to students-all sorts...ambitions for band and precise marching lines...knowledge and understanding of young people, and countless jokes...have endeared him to the Senior Class, we present our Purple and Gold with affection tempered with sincere respect.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Reflecting community government, Hanes student government is based on the same plan with a mayor and his board of city officials, a city manager and monitor-in-chief.

As chief official, Mayor Bill Hauser was inaugurated last spring after a whirlwind of crepe paper, speeches, and slogans.

Helping him in the student government, City Manager Vicki Brinegar and Monitor-in-Chief Jim Heath worked to see that Hanes City laws were enforced. Law breakers appeared in court each Wednesday afternoon and pleaded their case before the city officials and adviser Mr. Joe Widd field.

The court consists of a judge, solicitor, stenographer and clerk. Two aldermen from each homeroom are elected once a semester to represent the student body as a voice in the government. These students meet with the mayor and principal to discuss problems and make new laws for the school.

Student government at Hanes affords experience in accepting responsibilities, in stating leadership, and encouraging personal development.

MAYOR Bill Hauser presents official report to Mr. Haldwanger as Jimmy Heath, monitor in-chief, Vicki Brinegar, city manager and Mc Widdfield, advisor, without procedure.

Tenour court officials, Betty Conrad, Sarah Vapner, Carol Byrne, Gerald Hampton summon law-breakers to court on Wednesday.

PUBLICATIONS

Newspaper editors Vicki Brune, Jr. and Dee Masencup, spend sleepless hours on the Hi-Rada.

Editorial staff members work on the Hi-Rada.

Bound for SIA convention in Lexington, Virginia are journalism students Carol Byrnes, Ray Tysinger, Mary Wolfe, and advisor, Miss Liles.

The Hanes Hi-Rada and the Purple and Gold are spearheaded toward two aims, publishing a newspaper and annual which best reflect Hanes High, and improving in journalistic rating at the Southern Inter-scholastic Press Association in Lexington, Virginia.

Going to press once a month, the Hi-Rada staff proofreads, writes editorials and features, and checks beats.

Meanwhile the Purple and Gold staff, editors, Charlotte Brown and Nancy Bouknight, together with the Gray and Reynolds editors, transform basketball shots, captions, and beauty queens into a Purple and Gold edition.

Miss Betsy Liles is adviser for both publications.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

A busy day in publications department keeps staff members alert. Seated are P. Hill, N. Blatt, J. Brown, C. Byrnes, C. Brown, J. Shields, G. Shriver. Standing are T. D. Sherrill, R. Tysinger, M. Wolfe, B. Knott, and B. Hauser.

DRAMATICS

Mrs. Thornton, adviser, instructs in last touches of makeup before rising curtain. Left to right: C. Brown, sec.; J. Shields, pres.; N. Hiatt, v. pres.; and V. H. Hengar, treas.

Since the interest in the Dramatics Club has increased so greatly in the past few years, Hanes High is the only school in the city with an accredited dramatics department.

Besides starring in plays, members direct, apply make-up, head poster committees, and prompt.

The club is required to present at least six plays a year, but because of the enthusiasm of the students, Mrs. Mae Thornton, faculty advisor, has been able to present ten.

The successful year is climaxed by the annual spring banquet which is sponsored by the Masque and Gavel.

Cupid on the Loose produced much laughter when presented in assembly at Valentine.

The annual Christmas Pageant, student written and directed, recreated the birth of Jesus.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, which is advised and sponsored by Miss Eva Logan, was organized for the purpose of promoting fuller understanding of the Roman ways, customs, and the history and background of the Roman language.

The activities of the Latin Club include singing songs in Latin, dramatizations, playlets, reading poems, making posters, scrapbooks, valentines, and playing Latin games.

As a first semester project, the club raised money to buy Latin pins. To aid the fund the first and second year Latin students sold doughnuts and Christmas corsages.

For a spring activity the club selected the theme "The Relation of Latin to Modern Life" as a project for painting posters, and for decorating bulletin boards in the halls and the Latin class room.

Latin is truly an international language and acts as a bond between nations. Whatever line of work one goes into, he will find Latin of use to him. It not only increases one's knowledge of his language, but of many other languages.

SPANISH CLUB

'Diga' Amigo, como estas hoy

'Mi duela la cabeza y tengo un resfrado.'
Conversations like this may be heard at a typical second period Spanish club meeting.

Besides skits, bingo games and conversations, all in Spanish, club members discuss cultural influences of the Castilian language.

An outside project which stemmed from these meetings was selling of candied apples in support of the school Halloween carnival.

At Christmas and Valentine, club conversation changed to "multos alumnos twen una buena terbulia" when parties were given. Students, in honor of the occasion, wrote poetry—still in Spanish.

Leading the club was Miss Eva Logan, faculty advisor.

The Spanish Club was valuable to students in that it not only gave them an inside knowledge of Spanish life and cultures, but an opportunity for fun and fellowship.

"Attention, Seniors" is the theme of the College Club bulletin board decorated by D. Masencup, R. Tysinger, P. Bryant, and L. Sellers.

Juniors and seniors interested in furthering their education after high school graduation make up the college club. The club's main purpose is to help students find courses of study and schools best suited for them. Perusing college catalogues, inviting speakers on education, and giving a fifty dollar college scholarship keep meetings full. During graduation, club members also plan and carry out class day exercises.

Requirements for the club are an eighty-five subject average and an E department average.

Through its activities the club members are given the opportunity to learn reasons for attending college, differences in grading and social life, and the advantages of having a college education.

Key Club Officers are R. Tucker, pres.; V. Hedrick, v-pres; C. Hampton, sec.; J. Heath, treas.; and D. Carther, chaplain, enjoy being "cocky birds" in the lunch line.

The Key Club has been one of the school's most outstanding organizations sponsored by the Kiwanis Club International.

The members are limited to 25 boys who have met the rigid requirements of the club's constitution. To be qualified for the club, one must maintain an E on deportment and must have a C average. After the majority vote of the club plus the principal's approval, the nominee is put on six months' probation period. During this period, the boy has to earn 8 service points. After this, he is made a full member of the club.

The Key Club sponsors drives to help the school, such as the 7-for-1 and 2-for-1 campaigns.

Among the clubs at Hanes High for boys, the Hi-Y, which is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., is outstanding. Membership is attained by election of the club members only. To be selected one must achieve the following standards: scholarship, clean speech, and good sportsmanship in the development of Christian personality.

Activities sponsored by the Hi-Y throughout the year are the annual devotional program on clean living, a talent show, a dance, and a basketball team which participates in the Hi-Y tournament.

The meetings are held each Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A.

BAND

An important organization at Hanes, which furnishes music for a majority of our assembly programs, provides colorful halftime performances at our football games, both at home and away, is the band.

At one game, the band marched in halftime formations depicting the four seasons: for fall, a harvest moon; for winter, ice skates, spring, an umbrella; and summer, a baseball diamond.

SENIOR COUNCIL

The remodeling of the Dragon's Den this year with the purchasing of a new record player, a year have proven to be the Senior Council's biggest achievements so far.

Besides planning and sponsoring extra-curricular activities for the members of the Teenage Club, the Senior Council also acts as a governing body over the club's approximately 200 members.

Membership in the Senior Council is decided by the majority vote of the Teenage Club at annual spring dance. The candidates are selected by a special nominating committee. These students are chosen according to their interest and participation in all Teenage Club activities.

A semi-formal Christmas dance, a chicken stew and many other dances after football and basketball games are some activities the council has sponsored. These and other activities help the council give Hanes the social life it needs.

Miss Mary Mitchell is the advisor.

MACHINE SHOP

The day-trade machinist class is a part of the vocational training offered at Hanes High School. It gives two units toward graduation each year. The studies consist of Shop Theory, Shop Mathematics, Blue Print Reading, and actual shop practice on machines such as lathes, milling machines, shaper, surface grinders, tool grinding, bench work, lay-out, and assembly. The students work in the shop on numerous projects such as various types of vices, drill press, wood sanders, wood shaper, wood lathes, band saw, jointers and planers. Hand tools include hammers, screw-drivers, center punch sets, surface gauge and tap wrenches.

The student pays for his material in his project and when finished in an acceptable manner, it becomes his property to carry home. Industry allows the student time off his apprenticeship training for time spent in our vocational school. A student that has spent two years in our machinist school is better fitted to take his place in industry of his choice. The class is open to juniors and seniors alike.

The equipment in our shop is of modern design. It has every possible safety feature that can be incorporated into a machine to make it safe even for a first year student to operate.

Our tool room is furnished with a complete line of the latest tools to aid the student in doing an outstanding job on any project that is assigned to him.

Some of the tools that the student learns to use are scales, calipers, various gages, threading tools, micrometers, indicators, tap and drills.

A student that is finishing his first year in the machine shop becomes very adept in the use of these highly precision tools and can work to a very close tolerance.

The Dragons completed the 1955 schedule with a three to seven record. Their last game they upset the vaunted conference leader, Tri-City.

Starting the season at home in Bowman Gray Stadium, the Dragons lost five straight games. The games were lost to Mineral Springs, Reynolds, Gray, Mt. Airy and Myers Park.

In the following two games the Dragons dropped one to Reidsville, the conference champion, by a creditable score of 27-13. Ray Ingram, having taken over at fullback after Arnold Fishel was injured, did an outstanding job. The Dragons lost 4 backfield players at this point by injuries. The players were Jo-Jo Caudle, Arnold Fishel, Donnie Sparrow, Bob Knott. In the win over Griffith, Tommy Ratledge played his usual fine game which sparked the team the whole season.

The linemen showed through in the next two games with Children's Home and Walkertown. Kent Martin, Tom Jones and Bob Adderton shared the honors.

In the win over Tri-City, J. H. Bowman scored two touchdowns and Roy Sparks threw two touchdown passes.

On the whole the season was a good one, for the purpose of high school football is not only to win but build men.

BASKETBALL

The Golden Dragons completed their first season in three games with a 12-18 record. They lost the first game to the Tri-City team by a score of 21-17. The second game was a win over the Tri-City team by a score of 21-17. The third game was a win over the Tri-City team by a score of 21-17.

The Golden Dragons also won a championship with a win over Reynolds and 2 wins over Gray, Southern, Ratledge, and Tucker played some of the best defensive ball while "Curly" Whitt led the team in its victory over Reynolds. "Red" Southern was named AAA Player of the Week. Gray Tucker was high scorer in the season with a total of 17 points. Southern, Weaver, and Ratledge followed in that order. Stewart and Sparrow shared fifth man honors on the team.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Shermer-Pugh Chapter of the Girls Athletic Association consists of girls who have earned at least 25 points in any sport. Points are given for practicing, playing in games, participating in club projects and many other activities.

Among the awards given by the G.A.A. are a shield for 100 points, local school letter for 200, 300 points a star, 400 points and citation, another star for 500 points and a gold pin for 800.

Some of the activities of the club for the 1955-'56 year, under the leadership of president, Diane Thompson, were participation in the spring and fall carnivals, making party favors to raise club fund, and the annual G. A. A. banquet.

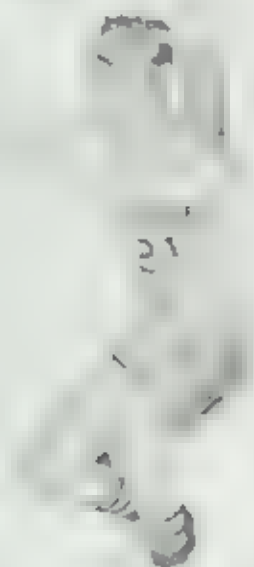

More participation in the girls' sports is the goal set by this club.

Years of Service 1912-1956

Through many years of service in the Winston-Salem schools as teacher, principal of Cherry Street and R. J. Reynolds high school, and superintendent of Winston-Salem schools, DR. JOHN WATSON MOORE has endeared himself to the people of this community. His graciousness and ready helpfulness have stamped forever an indelible memory in the hearts of each and all of us

Dedication

For her love of teaching, her unfailing kindness in all problems, her valuable friendship and blithe spirit, which we shall cherish always, we, the Senior Class of 1956, proudly dedicate our Black and Gold to Miss Hazel Stephenson.

HONOR PAGE

Eddie Armfield earned his well-deserved title by participating in various activities at Demon Hill, such as Sports Editor of the Pine Whispers, and membership in the Key Club. Eddie served as president of the First Presbyterian Youth Fellowship in addition to his various other church offices. Besides all these services to groups he is also willing to help anyone in need and proudly claims the title of the chief baseball team supporter.

Eddie Armfield, Student of the Year

This year the WTOB radio station elected Tim Isley as the outstanding player in the city. Tim played the left guard on defense and offense and many AAA opponents felt his never-say-die spirit. Tim was never the flashiest player on the squad but was one of the hard-working members of Reynolds forward wall. Bill Taylor, triple threat fullback of Reynolds High School, won the Bocock Stroud award by receiving the most votes of all the students in the county. He and one other were given an expense paid trip to the Orange Bowl in Florida. Congratulations to both these boys for their hard work.

Bill Taylor, winner of Bocock Stroud award; and Tim Isley WTOB award winner

Sarah Tesch, D.A.R. Good Citizen

Sarah Tesch, Reynolds D. A. R. Good Citizen, has been very active in campus activities. She is president of the Brevard Hoover Chapter of the National Honor Society and the French Club, and was elected "Most Intellectual" in the senior class. The theme of Sarah's scrapbook was "Old Salem" carried over in four parts: Home, Community, School, and Church. Sarah plans on majoring in languages next year at Salem College.

Mr. Nash Hardy and Kathy Norfleet, winners of Black and Gold Campaign

Black and Gold winners for this year's drive for the $7000 goal were Kathy Norfleet and Mr. Hardy's homeroom. Both of them sold nearly $600 together in the drive that is the single source of income for Reynolds activities. The eighth grade, as usual, sparked the drive with Mr. Hardy's room came out on top with a sell of $482.70 in two weeks. They sold not only to individuals but also to companies. In this way they gave a sales talk to nearly everyone they met. Kathy Norfleet, individual winner with a tremendous sale of $143.50, used much the same technique to persuade doubtful purchasers.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND COUNCIL OFFICERS

Carolyn Benbow, treas. Ward McKithen, V. Pres. Bill Taylor, pres.; Linda Sue Dickson, sec.

The Honor System of which the entire student body of Reynolds high school is proud, is executed by the Student Council. This body, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret McDermott, is responsible for the maintenance of the high standards set up in the Honor Code.

The Student Council tries any student who has violated this standard of honor and moral responsibility. It is a most important part of the Reynolds High School Student Cooperative Government.

During the year 1955-56, the Council served the school as PTA pages and were hosts at a party for the new students. They spent much of their time in the improvement of this school organization.

The group is composed of representatives from each class and is under the leadership of the president, Bill Taylor; vice-president, Ward McKithen; secretary, Linda Sue Dickson; and treasurer, Carolyn Benbow.

HOUSE COURT AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The nudges and warnings of "wrong steps" and "don't drop that candy wrapper on the floor" are trademarks of a conscientious House of Representatives member.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Sarah Frost, the House officers and members spend many hours working to enforce the rules and regulations set up by the student body. This organization is headed by Patsy Edwards, speaker, and Margaret Goodrich, speaker pro-tem. The other members include one representative from each homeroom.

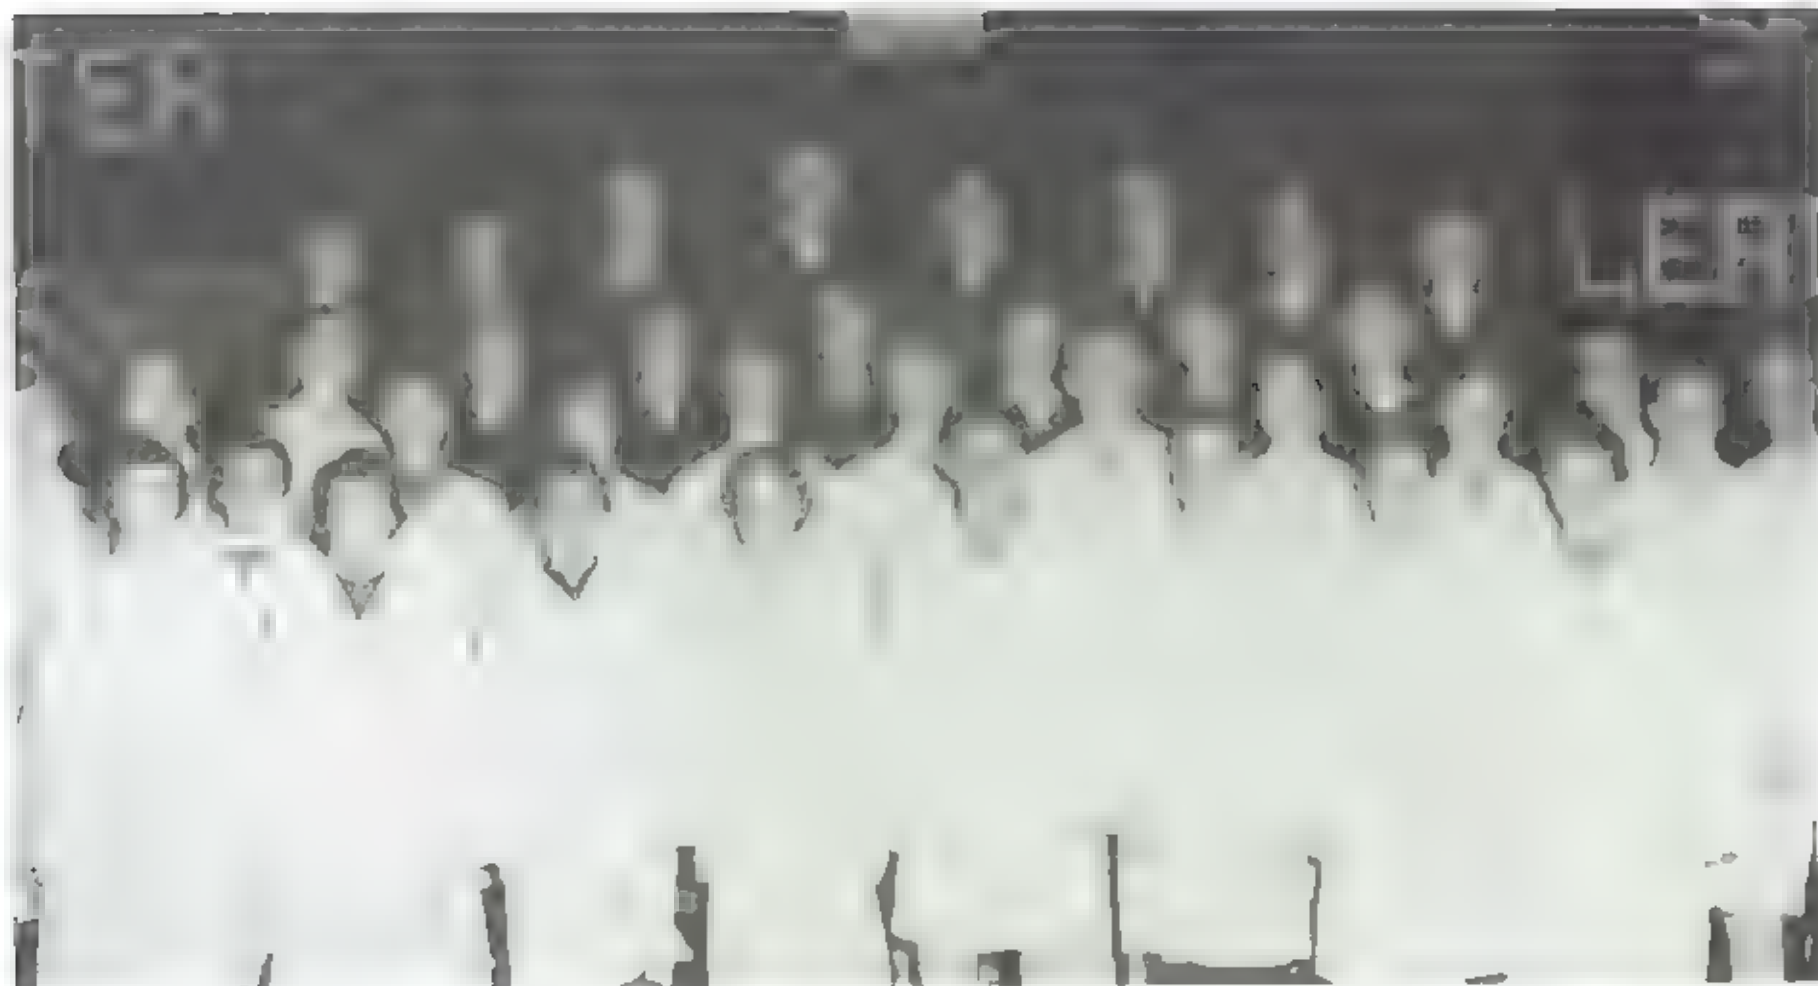

The duty of this organization is to encourage the students to take pride in the appearance of the buildings and grounds and to discourage harmful and inconsiderate actions. Violators are tried before the House Court.

This body serves as one of the legislative and judicial parts of the Reynolds High School student government.

During the 1955-56 school year, the House of Representatives sponsored, with the Student Council and the National Honor Society, a party for the new students.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Brevard Hoover Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized at Reynolds High School in 1922 for the purpose of recognizing those students who have been outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. It is the service of this organization to promote these four ideals among the members of the entire student body.

Among its projects, the National Honor Society chapter sponsors the P. S. devotional chapel. Mr. Joyner speaks at this program. They also sponsor the annual college day program. Representatives of the various colleges are here to talk with students interested in furthering their education. Another service rendered to the school is the new students' program given with the House of Representatives and the Student Council. The Reynolds high school chapter also takes part in the state convention, submitting a scrapbook in this state-wide competition.

Two impressive inductions are held each year. These inductions are attended by the student body, faculty, and parents of all the inductees, and guests.

The chapter holds its regular meetings each Wednesday morning at 8:00. The co-sponsors of the group are Miss Marjorie Stephenson and Miss Madaline Collette. This year's officers were: Sarah Tesch, president; Norris Horwitz, vice-president; Sybil Strupe, secretary; Judy Ellis, treasurer, and Susan Luckenbach, devotional chairman.

Members of N. H. S. prepare for fall induction.

BLACK AND GOLD

This 1955-56 yearbook shows many hours of work that went into its publication. Work began at the beginning of the school year and was not completed until each person had received his annual.

Planning and executing the job of preparing the annual were the co-editors, Merrille Davis and Pat Sechrist.

Responsible for the senior write-ups and pictures were the senior editors, Jane Wagoner and Sandra Jones.

Preparing the junior pictures for the press were the junior editors, Jane Church and Anne Phelps.

Serving as faculty editor on the Black and Gold was Mary Kathryn Hale. Another important job, that of art editor was very capably handled by Corty Creech.

SENIOR SERVICE CLUB

In the past years many boys have found excellent fellowship and fun in the Senior Service Club and this year has been no exception. Under the able leadership of Mr. Will Alexander, a former student at Reynolds and also a former S. S. C. member, the club ranked high in service to the school. Officers for the past year were Sam Mauzy, president; Jerry Alley, vice-president; Brick Sanders, secretary, and Gwynne Hupfer, treasurer. These boys have provided the necessary backbone for the various projects the club undertook in the past year.

The projects were many indeed, and much hard work was needed to accomplish them. Many of the members sold Reynolds buttons, stickers, and pennants to encourage school spirit. Dances were also sponsored after the football and basketball games for Reynolds students and their guests. The biggest project, however, was the responsibility of seeing that the Demon, which the football team runs through before each and every game, was fixed to the goalposts. This is one of the oldest traditions at Reynolds and was kept in good order by the S. S. C. again this year. The club also sponsored both football and basketball homecomings in conjunction with the Key Club.

Another major project of the boys performed during the school year was the infamous painting of the fishpools. A startling pink and green greets the beholder from the windows of the three floors. Maybe the color didn't suit everyone's taste but one had to admit that it looked one-hundred per cent better than the previous color of mottled gray. Another service which did a lot to help school spirit this year was the distribution of pep cards to members of the student body before each game.

First row: B. J. Parrish, K. Peterson, G. Hupfer, treas.; J. Alley, v-pres.; A. Sanders, sec.; C. Mauzy, pres.; J. Carter, Will Alexander, spon. Second row: G. Stiefel, J. Masten, H. Wilson, B. Rudolph, L. Schwoebel, G. Satterfield, H. Johnson, S. Mauldin.

Advisor Miss Jamie Wenger

One of the early activities of the College Club was the sale of Christmas greetings and all-occasion cards to collect money for the $100 scholarship given annually by the club. To add to the spirit of Christmas, a committee under the chairmanship of "Boosie" Booe, distributed an original, illustrated card to each homeroom.

The school year was brought to a close with the enjoyable open-house given by the College Club following graduation.

Many thanks go to Miss Weaver, the sponsor, who added helpful hints and did much to make the club an enjoyable and helpful one to the school.

The College Club elected as officers Kate Sandridge, president; Margaret Goodrich, vice-president; Mary Lee Walker, secretary, Sarah Tesch, treasurer. Also elected was Judy Peterson as program chairman. She spent many hours planning the weekly programs. Speakers representing colleges in this area addressed the group, and discussions were held on the choice of college. Programs of group discussion about college affairs were often led by Mrs. Weaver.

SENIOR HI-Y

The Hi-Y is one of the many organizations sponsored by the Y M C A., an international organization. The purpose of this club is, "clean speech, clean thoughts, clean acts." This year the Senior Hi-Y had a lot of fun and participated in a lot of hard work on various projects. Under the sponsorship of Ray Mathis, representative of the Y.M.C.A., and president Cowles Lilpfert, the club accomplished much towards living up to its slogan. The club's membership of approximately sixty, enjoyed dances, hay-and the annual Senior Hi-Y chapel program. This program is the highlight of the year for the group, and much hard work and a great deal of thought are put into it. It is probably the most devotional program of all those held each year at Reynolds.

For membership one must be nominated by a club member, be voted on by the club, passed by Mr. Joyner and the faculty, and have a "B" average and maintain an "E" on deportment. In this way only well rounded students are allowed to join the Senior Hi-Y. Those who are accepted join gladly and proudly.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Officers of the Girls' Athletic Association. Standing: Judy Peterson, Alice Forester, Barbara Boerner, Linda Dickson, and Kiki Voss.

The Girls' Athletic Association under the guidance of its sponsor, Miss June Dinkins, has exceeded far beyond the goals set for this year.

Each and every project was met and supported by enthusiastic girls seeking points. The fall program consisted of many Saturday morning hikes with fifty and sixty girls participating, and speedball intramurals and varsity.

Of course basketball was a great drawing card in encouraging girls to participate in G.A.A. activities. Three tournaments were successfully played, and the varsity set a hard pace for next year's team. At the same time the Saturday morning Basketball League, bowling, swimming and skating parties were drawing a good attendance. Also two tournaments were held in ping pong.

After basketball moved off the scene, volleyball and stunts and tumbling were the main attractions. In the spring, a new set of activities rolled in—tennis tournaments, softball tournaments, and preparation for the two spring playdays.

Towards the end of May everyone was in a frenzy, preparing for the G.A.A. banquet which climaxes each year. The different committees who spent so much time in preparing for the banquet did not waste their time and effort.

The banquet was one of the largest and best yet. After everyone was stuffed with the good vittals, recognition was given to those who had earned their shields, monograms, stars, and the highly prized state pin.

The officers who have been working hard carrying out their duties were Faye Harris, president, Barbara Boerner, vice-president; Alice Forester, corresponding secretary; Linda Dickson, recording secretary; Kiki Voss, treasurer; and Judy Peterson, point recorder.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Evelyn Garrison met during Thursday club period each week. They elected as their officers the following, Emerson Wall, president; Norton Tennille, vice-president; Ted Buddine, secretary and treasurer.

The main project of the club for 1955-56 was to sponsor the triangular debates and the state-wide debates. The topic for this year's contest will be resolved: That governmental subsidies should be granted according to need to high school graduates who qualify for additional training.

Emerson Wall, Bill Morrow, Tommy Colvin, Norton Tennille, Charles Elkins, Judy Peterson, David Edwards, David Ball, Brenda Combs, and Kate Blackwell competed for the four places on the varsity debating team.

The winners were Emerson Wall, Bill Morrow, Norton Tennille, and Frank Ballance. They will prepare their debates. Two of the varsity debaters are on the negative and two on the affirmative. They will give their debates before the student body. The first round is competition against High Point and Greensboro. The former debating teams from Reynolds high school have always done exceedingly well by reaching the state semi-finals and final.

The National Forensic League sponsored by the speech department attended the Student Congress in Raleigh in October, the State Congress in Kinston in February, and was host to the State Speech Tournament in May. Officers of this group were Tommy Colvin, president, Bill Morrow, vice-president, Norton Tennille, secretary and treasurer, and Emerson Wall, reporter.

THESPIANS

Under the sponsorship of Miss Catherine MacRae, the Dramatics Club presented the Thespians production, "The Valiant," at the school assembly on Monday.

Officers serving as officers were Gloria Rupprecht, president; Katherine Isenhour, vice-president; Patsy Green, secretary; Carolyn Holder, treasurer; and Nancy Wilson, scribe.

The production presented by the group was entitled "The Valiant." The play was presented under the direction of Gloria Rupprecht.

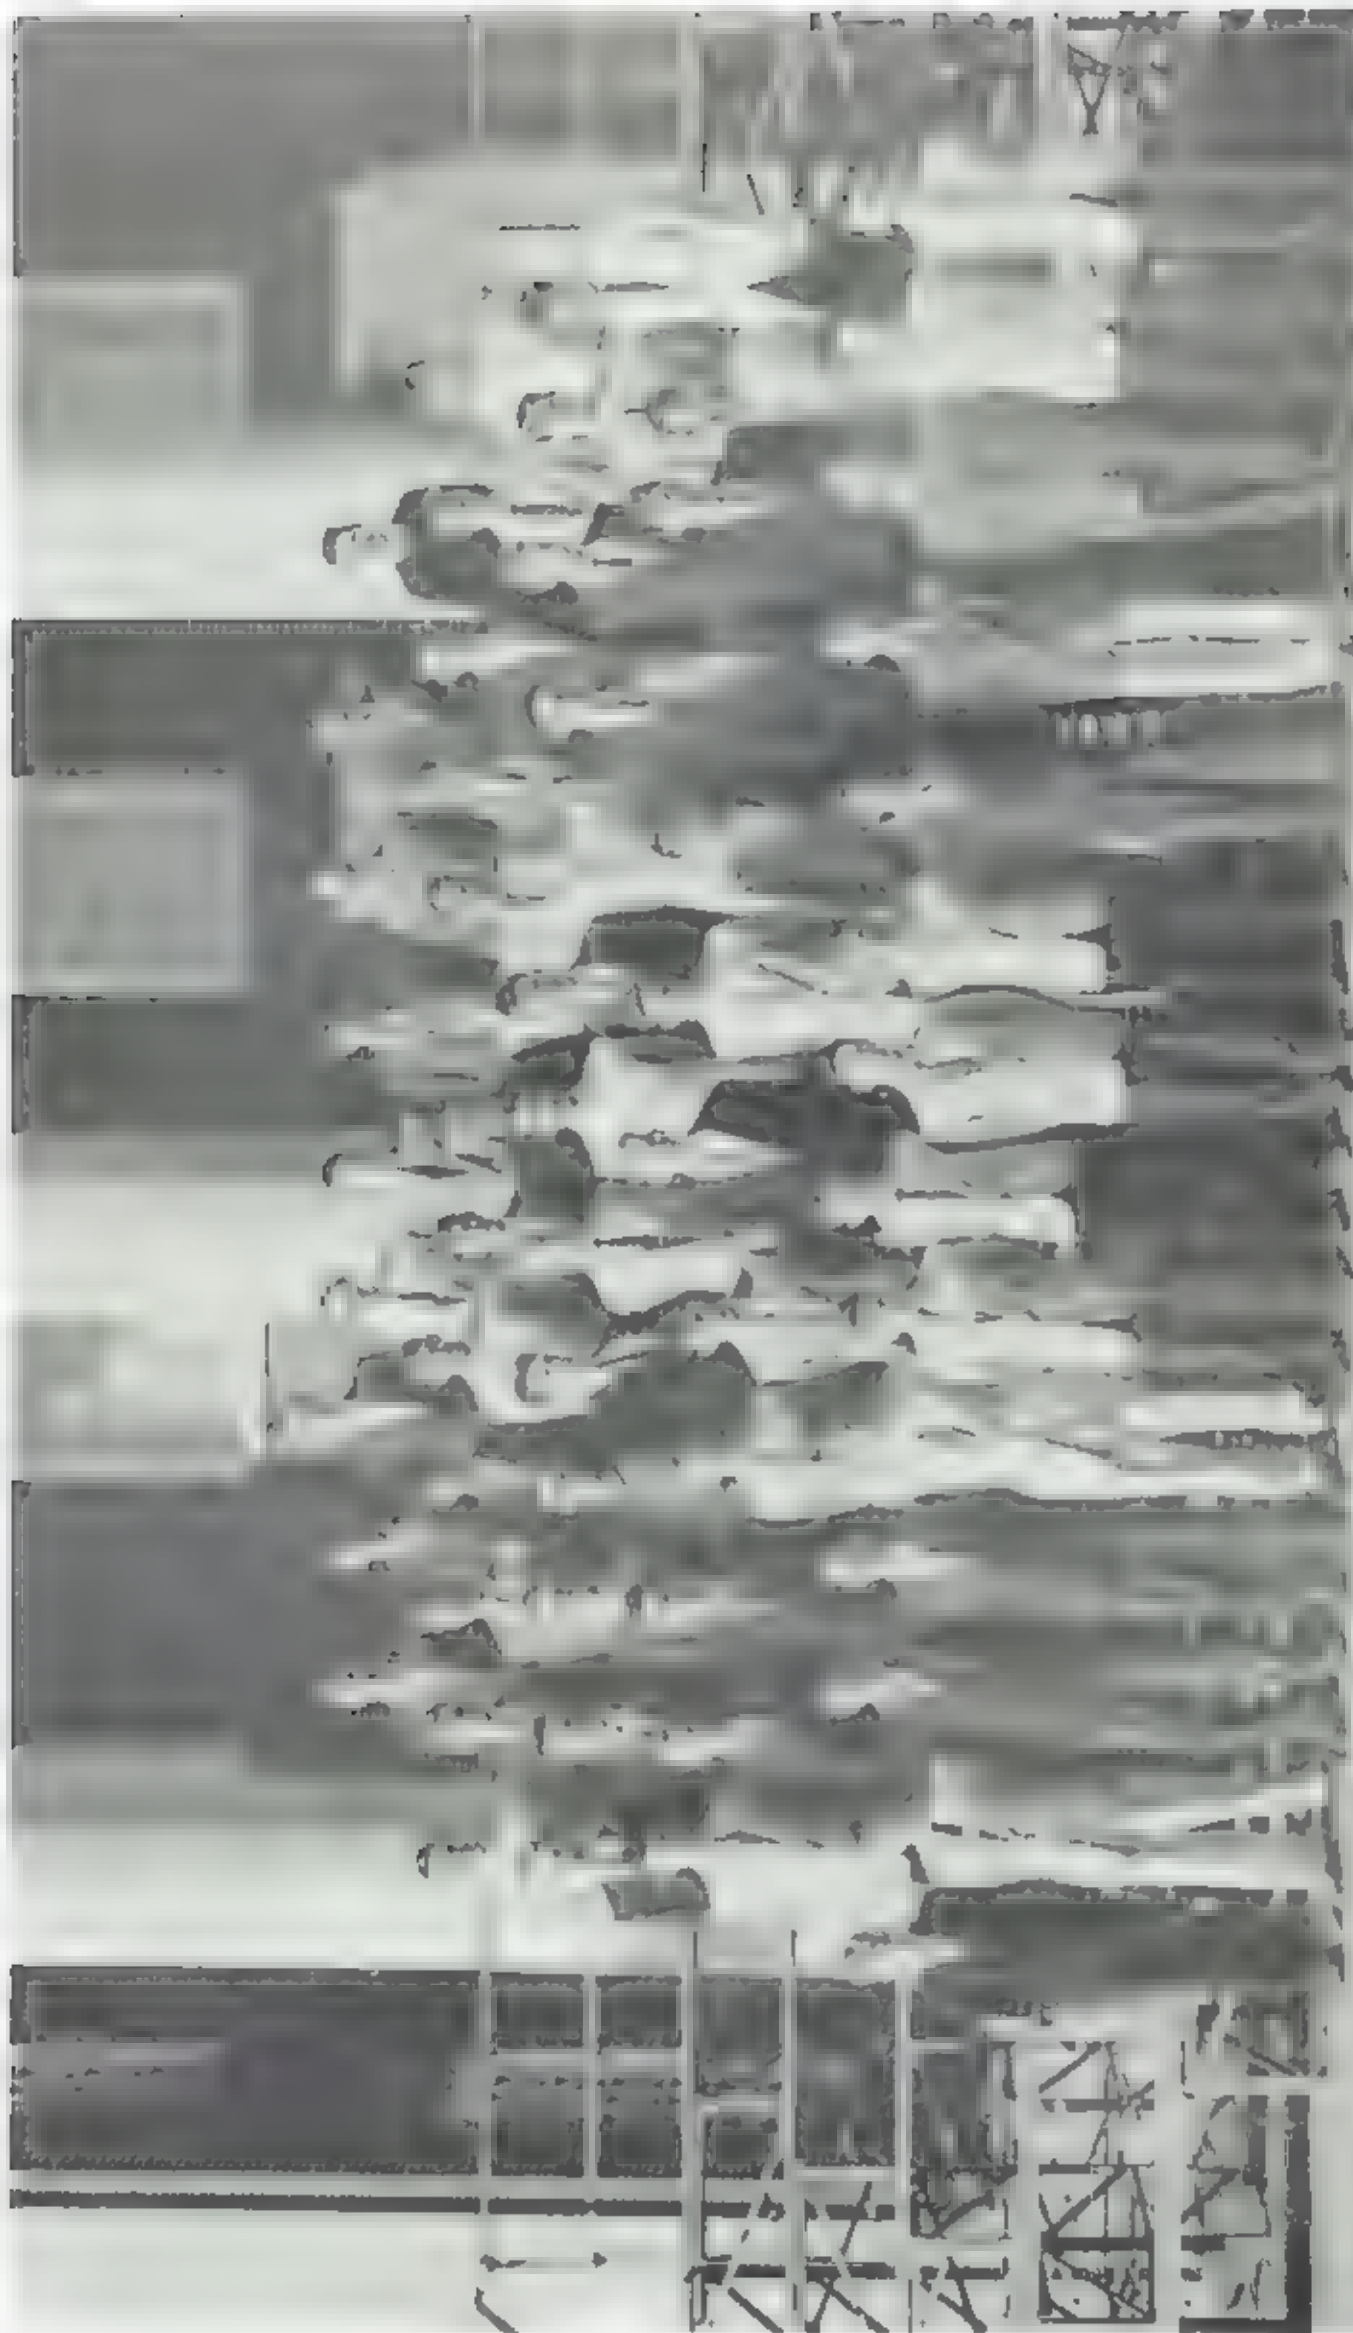

The members of the play were selected and spent many hours rehearsing. Appearing were Howard Kelly as Walter, the brother of the prisoner; Jerry Jones as Billy, the brother of the prisoner; David Bell as James, the prisoner; Steve Graham as the jailer; Roger Weiss as an attorney; and the female role was played by Betty Dean. She appeared as Josephine Paris, the prisoner's wife. The play was set in the warden's office of State's Prison at Weathersfield, Connecticut. The play was presented in the spring.

The Thespians also combined with the voice groups to present a Christmas pageant before the student body. The tableaux, done in pantomime, and the inspirational songs on the subject of Christmas with the Christmas spirit.

PRINT SHOP

This year, under the leadership of Mr. Clyde McSwain, the print shop has turned out ten issues of Pine Whispers, the Black and Gold Annual, and various cards, information, bulletins, and booklets. The annual is the main project, along with the publication of the school paper. Early in the year plans were made for the annual, but its termination does not arrive until the end of school. Along with the annual goes the printing of all cards, buttons, and Black and Gold tickets. This is a year round job and this year the print shop produced over 17,000 tickets for the Black and Gold campaign. Another valuable product is some 8,000 report cards for the three high schools.

The printing materials and press are housed in brand new facilities. Mr. McSwain said when he saw our new print shop that it was one of the most modern in the state. Under excellent working conditions the print shop staff has done a great deal of work. Many thanks are given to them from the entire student body for the fine job they have done.

The boys who take the print shop course are required to take English and Math with the regular three periods of printing instruction under Mr. McSwain, in which they receive tutelage in the use of the press and linotype machine, and in various methods of setting up type. They also gain experience in book binding through the work with the annual. In the two classes of printing there are some 19 boys. These classes consist of six seniors, three juniors, four sophomores, and six freshmen. This leaves a fairly experienced group of boys to carry on next year after the six seniors graduate. Upon graduation the boys have already formed a good basis for a career in the printing field and many enter the printing industry.

MONOGRAM CLUB

This past year the Monogram Club has sponsored various activities at Reynolds and has been more active in service to the school than ever before. The club has a total membership of sixty-one. The officers of the club are chosen by the following: Ralph Asbury, president; Ward McKenhen, vice-president; Richmond Rucker, secretary; and Tim Isley, treasurer. The boys have been active in such services as ushering at the Parents' Night; Football game and sitting at the desks of the gym during and before basketball game. As mentioned, they participated in the home game to welcome the referee and help him in any way he can. The club members spent one work day making Mr. Tandy clean up the grounds around his new home.

The club presented two programs, one of which was their annual "A" average program and a program featuring the sports at Reynolds to the boys of the student body. It also sponsored the Black and Gold campaign in the spring to raise the money to finance sports.

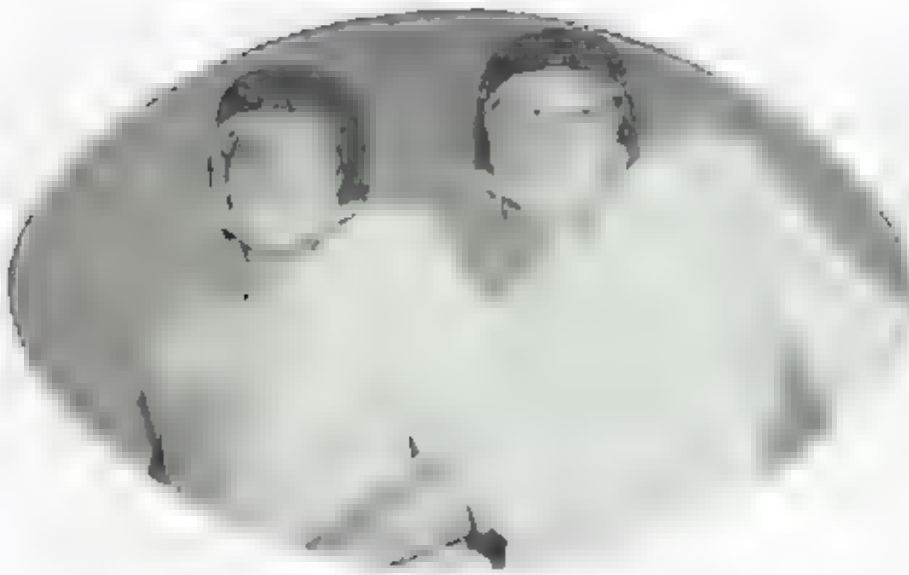

The Monogram Club consists of those boys who have won their letters at Demon High in football, basketball, baseball, golf, track and tennis.

After rolling over their cross town rivals, Hanes and Gray, the Tandyman gained recognition throughout the state and many fans thoughts turned to the teams of two and three years ago when the Demons took two state championship titles from Durham High School. Led by Taylor in the backfield and Powell, Sanders, Isley and Armfield in the line the Demons completely outclassed Burlington and then traveled to Asheville only to meet defeat on a rain-drenched field. From there the Demons played spotty ball but never regained their early season form until the last game with High Point. Although High Point was slightly favored the boys from Demon Hill completely outfought them and the season ended on a happy note with a final record of six wins and four losses.

With the team running the conventional single wing offensive attack the big cogs in the backfield last season were tailback Bill Taylor, fullback "Horse" Gitter, wingback Ralph Asbury, and quarterback Billy Davis. The line was led on offense and defense by Brick Sanders, Eddie Armfield, Larry Powell, Lawrence Davis, Ward McKeithen, and Tim Isley. These boys were thrown together into such a defensive line that few were the touchdowns scored against them this year.

Receiving special honors this year were Taylor, Bocock-Stroud trophy, Isley, best player in city given by W. T. O. B radio station, and Powell, for making the all-state squad along with Taylor. Sanders, Armfield, McKeithen, and Taylor were picked for the first team city squad.

BASKETBALL

Many factors were instrumental in the surge of optimism that pervaded the basketball team. A new coach, Mr. Jim Peebles, was on hand to help Coach Jim Sifford in his job of rebuilding the hardwood fortunes of Reynolds. The team's success was a result of the hard work and dedication of the players and the support of the fans.

From the opening game it was evident that basketball was improved all over the state, making victory just as difficult as ever.

Prophecy . . . Class of '56

By Dee Ann Masencup
and
John Edward Shields

"Hi, Johnny, how is everything with you during intermission in our humble night spot, where we're known to our audiences as Dee, actress, and Johnny, the drumming man?"

"Fine, the show moved smoothly making the first half tops. I predict a hit tonight."

"I hope so. Say, Johnny, could you blow less on these tom-toms during my spot on the show. Everytime I open my mouth your stupid band covers me up."

"That stupid band was voted number one in the nation this year, Dee."

"Well, you can take it out of the nation next year or get a new leading lady for the show."

"Don't get vile, Dee. I'll try to keep the fellows down, but you know how musicians get carried away."

"Sure; let's look out and see how all of our old school pals are pushing this small world around in 1975. Say, isn't that John Ashburn and Larry Benbow out there in the lobby selling popcorn?"

"It surely is. Seems our business manager "Soonie" Lamb, the great lead alto man, is supervising their jobs. They tell me the old boys were found on the streets pedaling shoe polish for Cavaller."

"Really? Did you know that Betty Jo Blackwood is on the snow ball stand out front?"

"No, I hope she and all our classmates of '56 can attend our get-together party at the Stork Club owned by Pat Darnell and Bob Addertion."

Me, too. I was told that Cynthia Wright holds the position of hat check girl over there now. Seems as she succeeded Shelby Wood, who is in the Snelly Shoe business."

"That chorus line was splendid during the first half of the show. Credit goes to our old classmates Nancy Hiatt, Linda Snyder, and Barbara Bennett, who kept Barbara Southern, Virginia White, and Jackie Eads in step. That whole act could have flopped, you know."

"You're right there. Say, you 'spose I could get someone other than Diane Thompson playing bass fiddle?"

"I don't know, unless it would be Big Billy Boles."

"Not Bill. He's with the "Four Red Roses" featuring Red Southern, Bill Cooper, Ronnie Whitt, and Joe Scales with Bill on bass and Bobby Joe Mayberry tickling the eighty-eight."

If I think of anyone new, I'll let you know. Oh, here's a telegram from Danny Bolt and Ray Livengood, those famous manufacturers of cue sticks, accepting our invitation to the Stork Club. They say they're on their way. Wade Smitherman will be a little late. He can't find highway 101."

COUGHING BY JOHNNY

You sure have an awful cold. Have some of my Jones Brothers' cough-drops, manufactured by Tom and Larry Jones."

"Thanks. They must be the best on the market; I've been informed that the Speaker of the House, Ray Tucker, uses them all the time."

"Johnny, when will those wedding bells be ringing for you?"

"The grand lady and I will be leaving soon on the same flight that Vicki Brinegar and Jim Heath are taking to the moon."

"Happy Landing!"

"Thanks, we may need it. Vicki and Jim are going on some experiment for Mr. Louis "Peepers" Seller's chemistry lab. They seemed to think that their children are too young to go for themselves."

Do you think they'll attend our party tonight?

I'm not sure. Carolyn "Poncho" Austin is in from Texas with a sand bucket full of oil, so we can look forward to seeing her tonight."

"Oh, that must have been Carolyn I saw riding a donkey down Fifth Avenue today. How quaint! Johnny what in the world are you eating?"

"Some of these delicious pretzels made by the Dwight Cartner Company. Have some."

"Oh, I remember two of his best pretzel tasters, Shirley Lynch and Ann Foltz."

"Yeah. By the way, have you seen 'Penny' Bryant, Carol Brown, and Almeta Wall? They promised to do "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend" just for kicks tonight."

"No, I haven't seen them. Have you seen the new Journal and Sentinel that Howard Hudspeth now owns?"

"No, I heard about it. Sounds nice. He got enough experience carrying papers. Do you read the fashion column by Charlotte Brown, an expert newspaper woman?"

"Sometimes, but I must confess my greatest enjoyment is the music column by Nancy Bouknight. Being an ardent newspaper reader, I noticed that John Albaugh was voted "Man of the Year" by N. Y. C. (New York City) Social critics, Eddie Burcham, Ray Woosley, Lois Cook, and Darlene Durham."

"I read that too. I also read that Tommy Ratledge was playing in the Punch Bowl for Bill Hauser's marble champions, and that Carolyn Gentle was teaching in a girls wrestling school owned by Peggy "Bubbles" Joyce, champion of 1975."

"Well, that's life for you, Johnny. Did you see that good-looking Marine in the second row, fifth seat of the audience?"

"That ole leatherneck, Vincent Hedrick? Sure, and Jack Fearrington, the great movie actor who now stars as Tarzan, is sitting beside him. Jack's latest hit is "Tarzan and the Dignified Monkey."

"Oh, yes, I also saw Betty Baker and Shirley Flynn out front. They jointly own Flynn's driving school. Two of their instructors are Nancy Blalock and Polly Hunt. They're said to be the best on the road."

"Speaking of instructors, Harold McMillan is now the Math department head at John W. Hanes High School. They say he's specializing in Algebra II."

"How divine! Have you seen my "Bat Lady" comic book?"

"No."

"Well, someone mentioned to me that Gretchen Temples is doing the Bat Lady modeling now. Her able assistants are Mae Flynt, artist, and Shirley Burcham, who dreams up the weird stases, is on the staff too. Heavens, it's time for the show to reopen. Where are my make-up artists, Gladys Bowden and Inez Shouse Hemersly?"

"I haven't seen them but I did see Naomi Burroughs carrying some light bulbs to Sam Moser, stage manager and electrician."

"I must find those make-up girls. My audience is waiting on me, and it pays to look good for those who pay."

History . . . Class of '56

1952 — September was no different from any other time for many people, but to the graduating class of 1956, it was a month to remember. At last we were high school students!

As the year rolled by, we grew physically and mentally. After becoming accustomed to swinging doors and study halls, we entered wholeheartedly into the activities of Hanes High.

The Senior Council elected Johnny Shields into its ranks; Nancy Blalock and Danny Bolt served on the Red Cross Council. Nancy Hiatt, Dee Masencup, Dwight Cartner, and John Ashburn became active members in dramatics and public speaking, and Nancy won the Kiwanis recitation contest. 1953—We welcomed classmates Shirley Ann Foltz, Gretchen Temples, Penny Bryant, and Louis Sellars as we entered our sophomore year. We were no longer small and insignificant, but were becoming an important part of the mechanism of the school.

Inducted into the Key Club were Bill Hauser, Ray Tucker, Ronald Whitt, and Dwight Cartner; the Hi Y tapped Jim Heath, Ronald Whitt, Ray Woosley, Bob Addertion and Larry Jones.

The Senior Council called Charlotte Brown, Nancy Bouknight, Vicki Brinegar, Tommy Ratledge, and Bill Hauser; Dee Masencup was honored by being tapped into the Masque and Gavel society. Bob Addertion and Tom Ratledge were selected for membership in the H Club.

Gretchen Temples placed first in the alcoholism essay contest.

1954—As we entered our junior year we were quite different from the green freshmen of two years ago. Again we welcomed newcomers, as Larry Benbow, Penny Bryant, and Vincent Hedrick joined us. As the year opened, we organized for the first time and elected officers to lead us. We chose Bill Hauser to fill the executive position, with Jim Heath, vice president; Pat Darnell, secretary; and Vicki Brinegar, treasurer.

The National Honor Society tapped Charlotte Brown, Almata Wall, Vicki Brinegar, Bill Hauser, Linda Snyder, and Nancy Hiatt. Nancy Bouknight, Charlotte Brown, Vicki Brinegar, Dee Masencup, and Bill Hauser were inducted into the Quill and Scroll. Shelby Wood, Nancy Hiatt, Johnny Shields, John Ashburn, Dwight Cartner, and Jim Heath were tapped by the Masque and Gavel.

The Future Homemakers of America claimed Lois Cook, Carolyn Gentle, Penny Bryant, Barbara Southern, and Shirley Flynn. Shirley Burcham and Penny Bryant were office pages; and Shelby Wood and Almeta Wall worked in the cafeteria.

Mae Flynt, Ann Foltz, Dwight Cartner, Vincent Hedrick, Larry Jones, and Lewis Sellars were active members of the Distributive Education Club. Ray Woosley, Danny Bolt, Bob Addertion, and Howard Hudspeth were among the hard workers in the machine shop.

"Moonlight Serenade," the theme chosen for our Junior-Senior Prom, held on the Balinese Roof of the Robert E. Lee Hotel, climaxed a wonderful and unforgettable junior year 1955—With sadness we returned for the last time to our beloved school. We lost several of our classmates but Polly Hunt, J. R. Smitherman, Naomi Burroughs, John Albaugh and Harold McMillan joined our graduating class.

We again organized our class, electing Tommy Ratledge, president; Ray Tucker, vice-president; Charlotte Brown, secretary; and Pat Darnell, treasurer.

Class Day officers elected were Dee Masencup and Johnny Shields, prophets; Vicki Brinegar, historian; and Nancy Hiatt, testator.

The homecoming football ceremonies honored Bob Addertion, Tom Ratledge, John Ashburn, Bill Bowles, Ray Woosley, Howard Hudspeth, Larry Jones, Tommy Jones, Joe Seales, and Jim Heath.

Varsity basketball players were Tom Ratledge, Ray Tucker, Ronald Whitt, and James Southern. Playing for the girls were Carolyn Austin, Diane Thompson, Nancy Bouknight, and Barbara Bennett.

And now our school career is ended. The wonderful years of fun, learning and fellowship are over and we are about to embark on a new adventure. As we leave, we take with us the love for our school and memories of the times here. In the words of our own Alma Mater, "Nothing can ever replace our love for old Hanes High."

Last Will And Testament

We, the senior class of John W. Hanes High School in this year nineteen hundred and fifty-six, being of sound mind and body, do herewith leave as our Last Will and Testament the following

To Mr. Haltiwanger, our beloved principal, our deepest appreciation for what he has come to mean in our lives through his gentle guidance for the past five years.

To the faculty, who have given much more than required of them, we leave our sincere thanks

To Mrs. Erlene H. Martin and Miss Ruth Ford, our senior sponsors, we leave our undying love for their unselfish service to us

To Hanes High, we leave memories that time cannot dull and go, taking more with us than we can ever leave

I, Charlotte Brown, leave my position as Editor-In-Chief of the Purple And Gold to next year's editors

I, Linda Snyder, leave my safe drive to Patricia Smith

I, Vicki B. [unclear], leave my popularity to Carole Byrnes

We, Barbara Southern and Polly Hunt, leave our sweet dispositions to Louise Leamon and Martha Willard

We, Jackie Eads, Nancy Blalock, and Peggy Joyce, leave our places at our typewriters to Bonnie Southern

I, Carol Brown, leave my short hair cut to Sherry Bowman

I, Dee Masencup, leave my many tubes of lipstick to Kat Martin

We, Nancy Bouknight, Carolyn Austin, Diane Thompson, and Barbara Bennett leave our buddy-buddy love to Lynn Speer and Kay Chunn

We, Almeta White and Gretchen Temples, leave our two great minds to Calvin Chunn

We, Carolyn Gentle and Penny Bryant, leave our wit to Peggy Hill

We, Lois Cook and Nancy Williams leave our neatness to Jean Brown and Rachal Kanipe.

We, Pat Darnell and Betty Jo Blackwood, leave our beauty to Vicki Poe and Donna Gardner

We, Larry Benbow and Vincent Hedrick, leave our reserve meeting to all ambitious seniors of next year

We, Naomi Burroughs and Mae Flynn, leave our ability to do homework to Betty Bowles

Prophecy and History Class of '56

Time: 1976

Place: They don't know either

With guns on shoulders and hands in pockets, three huntresses amble along. They are Judy Staley, Margaret Goodrich, and Merrilie Davis

MERRILIE: Your idea of going on a hunting trip was tops, Margaret.

MARGARET: Yes, after working all week on plans for our Class of '56 high school reunion, this is a welcome change.

JUDY: Margaret, there's one of those frames which you invented for the countryside

MARGARET: The view comes with the compliments of Kay Watts' Burned-Out Light-Bulb Company. Her competitor Sonny Wagoner donated the money for the advertisement

MERRILIE: Last summer I learned to ride a hobby horse. The instructor was Patricia O'Neil at Thornie Hartle's Roundup Ranch. Mary Alice McBrayer is busy all the time as chief cow-caller at "Roundup." The cows are raised by David Metcalf.

MARGARET: Richard Henning runs a chicken farm down the road from Thornie.

JUDY: Margaret, what is that object whizzing across the sky?

MARGARET: That's the Junior Bird Man, Ken Peterson

MERRILIE: Here come the Reynolds grads, Anne Campbell, Ann Nuckols, in the Women's Jet Air Force in close pursuit

MARGARET: With these high, high-powered field glasses I can see Hank Wade and Ernie Brewer swabbing decks on the ship, U.S.S.C. There are those space cadets, Art Blackwood, Paul Kittinger, David Wray, Bill McLaurine, and Art Kurtz

JUDY: Billy Joe Parrish is an admiral in the Swiss navy and Gwynne Hupfer has been heard counting "hup 2, 3, 4," over and over in "this man's army."

MERRILIE: "They don't hardly make that kind any more." Maybe he needs to go to Faye Rumble's 1976 version of Graylyn

MARGARET: I found out that R. B. Blake and Henry Johnson have invented a new game, planet ball

MARGARET: The pro players are Jimmy Day, who has changed his JUDY: Have you read Clint Schaum's latest best seller, "The Schaum Report?" He sets the moral standards for the world. Another new book is publisher Peggy Bradburn's edition of "Slang Translation of Virgil" by Mrs. Margaret McDermott.

MERRILIE Barbara Morefield hasn't been seen since graduation; she is still wandering around her mansion

JUDY: Margaret, as I was looking through a stack of old Kernersville Hourlys, I noticed that Kernersville paper has a foreign correspondent in Winston-Salem, Dick Buddine

MERRILIE: It is world famous because of its introduction of Jack Carter's cartoon series, "Felix, the Frenchman"

JUDY: I see Alvis Westmoreland, bussiness manager of the Hourly, in his office. Glenn Tate, Jeff Overby, Donald Parker, Kenneth Treadway, and Benny Williamson have pioneered the "Pica System," a new method to run a press by atomic energy

MARGARET: In the United Nations Norris Horwitz has gained prominence lately as the only capable translator of member Kay Dalton's doubletalk

MERRILIE: Some of the guides at the U. N. are Sonia Tise, Libby Cheros, Lena Mae Holder, Olivia Maynard, Glenda Alford, Ralitsa Makros, Alice Blake and Martha Spough

MARGARET: The planet representatives are Nancy Long, from distant Pluto, Barbara Hylton, Mercury; Martha Masten, Jupiter, the twins Jack e and Jeanie Allen from Saturn and Neptune

MERRILIE: Secretaries for the representatives are Barbara Cheek, Marjorie Keith, Glenda Lamb, Virginia Wall, Nancy Owen, Pat Pardue, and Angelia Frazier

MERRILIE: Designer Maxine Byrd is putting her efforts into new hat creations. Taxidermist Bill Davis is stuffing birds to place on top of Maxine's hats.

JUDY: Gail Robin dreams up new ways to use red shoe strings.

MARGARET: The other day at the space shopping center, I saw Carolyn Holder and Carol Jones, who finally had enough change

JUDY: It is almost time for Patsie Green's television show, "Yesterday Afternoon," to come on. I bought a portable color set from Richard Page, the famous collector of dollar T. V sets. (Pulls it out of her pocket)

MERRILIE: Oh, there is Phyllis Hedrick doing handstands on Dave Rice's shoulders to the Latin America composition, "Nekl Hokey Mambo," by Peggy Hitchcock

MARGARET: The famous "Toy Symphony" is on next with conductor T. D. Moore, Richard Saylor, and Carolyn Miller, Jane Wagoner, Carolyn Wray, Sue Hoffman, and Sue Masten—all members of the XYZ Symphony

JUDY: The Guys and Gals Combo, made up of Bobby Johnson, Marva Reid, and Phil Keaton are members of the "Yesterday Afternoon" cast

MARGARET: Did you see Chip "Squid" Stonestreet's latest movie, "Whale of a Tale" last week?

JUDY: Yes, I did. In the newsreel there were pictures of Tommy Shook and Wade Scott touring the continent on the new Cadillac motorcycles designed by Zack Reynolds

MARGARET: Also in the news were Gray Steffel and Eddie Fry, who vied for the fly-weight championship of the solar system in Monroe Octagon Fields. Robert Hahn was Eddie's manager. In other sports events, Larry Powell was the star leftback for the University of Alaska last fall; Walter Warford set a record for one hundred consecutive free shots missed with the Purple Paladins of Furman University; and Speedy Satterfield is playing heads down baseball for the Singapore Panics.

pear next. Did you hear the lecture Friday night given by Heck Turner, head of the Philosophy Department at Tapioca Institute of Pudding?

JUDY: I took a science course under Professor David Matthews at Howcome University. It was a study of the "Emotional Distresses of the Amoeba."

MERRILIE: Say, when are we ever going to begin compiling that history of our class, "The Decline and Fall of the Class of '56."

MARGARET: What's that thing flying overhead? Maybe this old fellow could help us out with the history for the reunion.

MERRILIE: You're right. Look, Time, we'll make a bargain. You certainly ought to know all about past happenings. If you give us some information about Reynolds High Class of 1956 we'll release you.

WALL: Sounds fair enough! I seem to recall a few incidents about that senior class. Let me look in my archives. Do you girls remember when Pogo won the Mock Presidential election? You people were freshmen that year. Your student council representative was Sandra Walsh. Mary Kathryn Hale, Emerson Wall and Judy Peterson were aspiring debaters, with Emerson participating on the varsity.

In the sporting phase of extra-curricular activities several of our class refused to be discouraged by their lowly class position as freshmen and distinguished themselves in varsity athletics. The 1952 State Championship football squad included Jack Frazer and Robert Gitter, who later became co-captains. The following spring some of the boys seen down on Hanes field were Speedy Satterfield and Bill Rudolph, who were beginning a four-year career on the varsity baseball team. Sonny Hill, David Wall and Jerry Masten represented the class on the Reynolds fleet of cindermen, while Archie Allen, Bonner Sams and Dick Hager were tearing up the golf links.

The following semester sounded the opening of another glorious school year. Yes, who can forget Coach Tandy's big splash in the headlines when he was caught with his feet planted firmly in the mid-air? During the football half-time, our future chief and assistant chief majorettes, Eleonore Payne and Carolyn Pegg, were beginning their high-stepping career, with Helen Booe and Elizabeth Cornwall as other members of the Dancing Boots. Meanwhile, back at the band room Mr. Mayer could be found directing T. D. Moore, Martin Nash Norris Horwitz, and Sylvia Johnson in preparation for one of the orchestra's fine concerts.

Turning to the inevitably ridiculous in any group of high school students, we find that the class of '56 was treated to perhaps the most outstanding blunder of its high school career as National Hick Day was staged. This cultural high-light signaled the opening of the second semester's activities. The fortunes of the Black Demon basketball squad were the chief concern of Jerry Alley, Freddie Lane, Richmond Rucker, and Walter Warford, who made the team that year. Leading the girls' athletic program in spring sport competition were Becky Fisher, Winona Sechrist, and Caroline Plemmons. As examinations drew to a close, and with them, the end of our sophomore year, the class of '56 awaited eagerly another summer period of fun and frolic preceding the final and most important. Showing leadership ability in student government affairs were Bill Taylor, secretary of the Student Council, and its future president, and council members, Blake Yokely, Mary Margaret Durham, and Billy Davis.

On the other hand, our class ably demonstrated its ability to provide a lively social atmosphere. The festive throng at the Junior-Senior watched as Ward McKeithan, our junior president, Lynn Walker, and Elizabeth Wildman were honored on the steps of Tara for their efforts in making our dance the greatest success ever. Other members of our class also attaining a measure of success and distinction were Sarah Tesch, Sybil Strupe, Judy Ellis, Helen Richardson, and Susan Luckenbach, who were inducted into National Honor Society. Another member of our class, Jean Webb, won the recitation contest. One who received recognition for outstanding ability was Louis Schwoebel, our Boys' State delegate. As juniors we continued to maintain an avid interest in athletics with Bob Mallins and Ronald Robarge leading the tennis team.

Our senior year, was the one in which Richmond Rucker won his monogram for two years' service as a football homecoming escort. Deanna Blanco headed the school spirit department as chief cheerleader. The girls in the College Club selected Kate Sandridge to lead them, while Patsy Edwards and Margaret Goodrich served as Speaker and Speaker Pro-tem of the House of Representatives. Several seniors who were outstanding on the Children's Home gridiron were Dave Heller, Robert Stewart, Winston-Salem's Shrine Bowl representative, Bob Dunnigan, and Robert Smith; while Lois Hamm, Jo Ann Culberson, and Corene Mitchell, Bobbie Cox, and Voncille Russell received credit for their play on the Methodists' softball team. The publications department of Reynolds High was the scene of much activity in Room 111, where the Pine Whispers staff was headed by Editor-in-chief, Judy Staley; Managing Editor Emerson Wall; Faye Harris, Girls' Sports Editor; and Boys' Sports Editor, Eddie Armfield; while Merrillie Davis and Pat Sechrist were co-editors of the Black and Gold.

Before concluding our history, we must not omit the final, crowning touch of glory that warm June evening when we emerged victorious over the trying experience of high school and for the last time proudly marched across our stage to the front lines of the battle of life.

JUDY: Thank you, Emerson

Last Will And Testament

We, the senior class of nineteen hundred fifty-six, being of reasonable sanity and acceptable responsibility, do hereby ordain this will and authorize it as an official document to be released publicly in Class Day Exercises June 4, 1956

To Mr. Joyner, our commander-in-chief, we leave our unbounded gratitude for steering our course through five most profitable years of mental exasperation

To Miss Hazel Stephenson and Mr. Barnette, our class sponsors, we can only say that mere words fall short of expressing adequately our profound thanks for all that they have done

To the junior class the seniors leave, with tearful regrets, their seats in 4th year Latin, term papers, publication offices, the choice seats in chapel, one more Junior-Senior, and special permission to cry at the last football games

Sybil Stewart, Judy Ellis, and Patsy Edwards leave their combined height to those who promise to put it to good advantage at all parades and football games

Tim Isley leaves his dimples and laughing, jolly countenance to Frank Davis

To the Key Club, Sam Mauzy leaves the S.S.C. and the grave responsibility and multiple cares of the pink and green fish ponds in hope that they will be painted black and gold to honor dear old R.J.R.

Barbara Boerner leaves Miss Dinkins in peace

Billye Keith leaves Keith's Cabin to Junior-Senior party-goers, open-house conscious R.J.R. girls, snipe hunters, and anyone else smart enough to find the way out there

Charles Fussel leaves his candelabra to George since Liberace already has one

Prophecy . . . Class of '56

The following story is a prediction.

All characters represent members of the 1956 graduating class of James A. Gray High School!

The city is Winston-Salem.

The time is June 5, 1976.

My name—Nancy Sprinkle

My job—to foresee the lives of my classmates in 20 years.

My first stop is the Hampton Rocketport, owned by multi-millionaire Mike Hampton. Upon arriving, I see Mike giving orders fast and furiously to his employees, Bailey Dwiggins and Donald Fletcher.

While here, I see the new atomic-powered Ride-O-Rocket, designed by mastermind Don Haug and built by Essie's Ride-'m Fast, Smooth, and Comfortable Corporation, owned by Tommy Essie. His employees include Jack Edwards, head powerman; Virgil Gough, in charge of all automatic gadgets; and Kenneth Hodges, general utility man.

I discover that Paul Sealey is pilot and Barrel Raper, co-pilot.

As I descend, I spot Larry Jarvis, William Darsey, and Patsy Newsome, and discover that Larry is the United States Representative to the United Nations, William is governor of North Carolina, and Patsy is mayor of Winston-Salem. Larry and William have been invited to Winston-Salem to be guest speakers at the Razzle Dazzle Music Club; and Patsy is extending her welcome.

The Razzle Dazzle is owned by Bill Bowman. Composing a trio, Lois Roland, Fay Williams, and Wayne Allen are the top billing. As admission and drinks are "on the house," guests are generous with their tips.

Also in the entertainment business are Mary Lou Sage and Buddy Dorsetti, who are now starring in "The Short and Long of Things." Martha Atkins is leading lady in "The Little Lady."

After leaving the rocketport, I hail a Speed-Around-Town and instruct the driver to take me to James A. Gray High School; but the driver tells me it is now the Patricia Ann Burchette High School. Vance Fulp, being principal, has rewritten quite a few rules and regulations; and escalators have been installed for the convenience of the students. Faculty members include Ezra Gough and Margaret Paige, English; Marvin Burns and Nancy Essie, mathematics, and Jo Ann Posey and Clete Ketner, physical education. Benjy Lemons is head janitor.

Next I visit the leading newspaper office, which is the On The Beam Brownette, edited by Lyndon Brown, with Jean Brown assisting. While gazing through the mornings edition, I make two astounding discoveries. The first is a picture of Nancy James and Lucy Allen with short hair. They represent Turner's Beauty Shop, owned by Angela Turner. My second shock comes while reading the public records. I discover that Anna Lou McGee, Carolyn Ferris, and Renea Foust spent the night in jail after being arrested for disturbing the peace. I also see that the Jack Ernest Modeling Club is producing a show at 1:30 P. M. So, I say good-bye to Lyndon and Jean and go to the modeling club. Among the models are Mitzi Reavis, Jane Rierson, Carole Jarrard, Carol Ebert, Colleen Sweet, and Pat Vernon. Peggy Lemons, Barbara Brendle, and Jane Hutchins are in charge of styling. Thoroughly enjoying their job as photographers for this club are Bob Nance and Roland Peacock.

Merley Neal, Allen Dietz, and Jerry Shepherd, model men's clothing at the Bolejack Men's Store in New York, which is owned by Barbara Bolejack.

Participating in the men's and women's rocket races are a few former Grayltes. Top contenders are Patsy Jenkins, Frances Stine, Martha Waggoner, Joan Bledsoe, William Tuttle, Charles Poleat, and C. A. Coe.

Others in the sports field are S F Mullis, Sam Tesh, and John Bodford, who play for the Winston-Salem Graydogs football team. Coaches are Anita Linville and Toby Sue Johnson.

Gene and Henry Fishel are stars of the Forsyth County Strip-the-Basket team, coached by Drama Bryant and Jean Cook.

The girl's All-the-Way soccer team of North Carolina, coached by Hal Slaughter and Kenneth Roberts, is sparked by Jacksie Bunn, Nancy Walker, Ann Crater, Nancy Wall, and Hazel Merriman.

Madame Wanda Spease is the teams' greatest inspiration as she can tell them the outcome of the games before they are played. Belva Rumley, her assistant, has almost as much power as Wanda does with the crystal ball.

Also in business is F D. Craver, who owns Craver's Steam Company. As his secretary, Sylvia Brittain, just can't get her bills typed in time, Loretta Nichols has been hired to assist her.

Rita Sparks, Janice Bobbitt, and Sandra Copley are typists for the U. S. Champion typists are Gaye Foy and Nancy Bowden, who use Flynt Type-writers, made by Bill Flynt's Speedy Corporation.

Another outstanding corporation is Taylor's Cigar Factory, owned by Johnny Taylor. This factory specializes in cigars filled with a chemical discovered by William Reich, professor of Chemistry at Amelia Bolin's Private School for Refined Southern Gtits. Jimmy Loggins is professor of algebra at this school.

Davis and Davis Jewelry, owned by Joan and Marjorie Davis, specializes in diamonds. Employees are Pat Cook, Juanita Story, and Carol Adams.

Owner of the Snack Shack is Larry Criner. Chief cook is Ronnie Brown and dance instructor is Ella Borders.

Larry Canada and Dale Freeman are engaged in the dancing profession, as they own the Rock and Roll Dancing House, where Billie Butcher is head instructor.

Officers of the Winston-Salem Mesdames Club are Doris Speaks Wall, president; Joanne Flippin Hopkins, vice-president; and Alice Davis Wilkins, secretary.

The Billboard Company, owned by Montie Mullis, is featuring pictures of Bonnie Moser and Doris Casper, as The Blonde and The Brunette. This advertising is for the Sealey Hair-Styling Company, owned by Sara Sealey. Others pictured on billboards are Peggy Craver and Diane Foltz, representing the Personality Club, Jo Ann Hemrick and Jane Brann, the Friendship Club; and Sylvia Guinn and Ann Highsmith, world's leading bareback riders.

This ends the day of June 5, 1956, and my job. The Case of the Gray High Graduating Class of 1956 is closed. Their sentence is to face the world and put into practice their knowledge gained during their school years.

History . . . Class of '56

Hearts were overflowing with pride on that day in September of 1951 when we, after eight long years of waiting, became an official party of Gray High School. As we were only freshmen, the seniors seemed to be receiving most of the attention, but we were determined to make a name for ourselves.

Serving as homeroom presidents that first year were Ronnie Brown, Larry Jarvis, Nancy Moore, Anita Linville, Pat Vernon, and Henry Fishel. Our student organization was receiving good support from board members, Bonnie Moser, Sylvia Brittain, and Buddy Dorrell.

Because of their outstanding scholastic achievements, Mary Lou Sage, Janie Rierson, Jean Brown, Diane Foltz, Nancy James, and Anna Lou McGee were chosen sophomore pages for the annual Junior-Senior Dance.

Inducted into the Key Club were Roland Peacock, Lyndon Brown, Benjy Lemons, Bill Bowman, and Larry Jarvis; into the Hi-Y were Ronnie Brown, Tim Murray, and Allan Dietz, and into the Masque and Gavel, Doris Speaks Wall. Doris also won the Best Actress Award in the dramatics class.

Still determined to reach our goal we eagerly accepted the title of juniors. Elected to lead our class's activities were Ronnie Brown, president; Diane Foltz, vice-president; Sylvia Brittain, secretary; and Peggy Craver, treasurer.

For their outstanding character, leadership, scholarship, and service Nancy Moore, Ann Highsmith, Janie Rierson, Mary Lou Sage, Dale Freeman, Lyndon Brown, Peggy Craver, Diane Foltz, Nancy James, Benjy Lemons, Jean Brown, Billie Butcher, and Ronnie Brown were tapped into the National Honor Society.

Senior marshals, chosen to lead the seniors down the aisle on the night of graduation, were Diane Foltz, chief; Wanda Spease, Mazi Reavis, Janie Rierson, Pat Burchette, Carol Ebert, and Pat Vernon. Pat Burchette also served as vice-president of the student organization.

Among the many honors won by members of the class were the following: winner of the World Peace Contest and D. A. R. Good Citizen Representative, Nancy James, Christmas bulletin board contest winner, Jane Hutchins; first place in city art contest, Barbara Brendie; and member of the All City Basketball Team, Henry Fishel.

Members of the Monogram Club were Larry Criner, Frank Mullis, John Bodford, Ronnie Brown, Sammy Tesh, Marvin Burns, C. A. Coe, Eugene Fishel, Tim Murray, Allan Dietz, Bill Bowman, and Buddy Dorsett. Inducted into the Hi-Y were Lyndon Brown, Benjy Lemons, and C. A. Coe; and into the Key Club were Tim Murray, Ronnie Brown, Dale Freeman, C. A. Coe, and Eugene Fishel.

Tapped into the Quill and Scroll were Lyndon Brown, Nancy Moore, and Jean Brown; while into the Masque and Gavel were Patsy Newsome, Wanda Spease, Nancy James, and Buddy Dorsett.

Reaching the end of our destination, we finally were able to accept the duties and responsibilities of "dignified seniors." Chosen to head our class were Lyndon Brown, president, Jean Shepherd, vice-president; Peggy Carter, secretary; and Buddy Dorsett, treasurer.

For her untiring service and helpful guidance Mrs. Libby Stines was chosen for our Blue and Gold dedication.

The exciting task of selecting superlatives resulted with the following: Most Intellectual and Most Likely to Succeed, Nancy James and Benjy Lemons; Wildest, Mary Lou Sage and Johnny Taylor; Most Popular, Pat Burchette and Henry Fishel; Most Athletic, Jo Ann Posey and Cleo Ketner; Best Looking, Janie Rierson and Merley Neal; Friendliest, Pat Burchette and Larry Canada; and Best All Around, Diane Foltz and Buddy Dorsett.

Officers in our student organization were Pat Burchette, president, and Janie Rierson, corresponding secretary.

Our cheerleaders, who gave excellent support to our sports program, were Wanda Spease, chief, Gaye Foy, Mitzi Reavis, Pat Burchette, Billie Butcher, Hazel Merriman, and Janie Rierson.

Although our school days are over, thoughts of our happy, exciting, and profitable experiences here at Gray will long remain in our hearts.

Last Will And Testament

We, the 1956 graduating class of James A. Gray High School, having met all qualifications required of us and realizing that the time of our departure from these cherished portals is inevitable, do hereby ordain and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I

For their unfaltering trust in our youth, their unswerving faith in our ability, and their understanding of our mistakes and failures, we leave to Mr. J. A. Woodward, our principal, and Mrs. Grace James, our student organization adviser, an abundance of heart-felt gratefulness

Section II

To Mrs. Carrie May Allgood; Mrs. Mary Miller Hutchison; and Miss Ruth Melnong, our senior sponsors, and to the other members of the faculty we offer a life-time supply of sincere appreciation for all their interests in us during this and the previous years of our high-school career.

Section III

Upon the juniors we bestow the dignity and privileges that shall be placed in their hands next year in hope that these honors will be handled in a manner which befits a senior's status.

ARTICLE II

Section I

Pat Burchette would like to leave to each member of the student body a portion of her friendliness, popularity, and leadership, but as one's charm must be kept intact she has decided to bequeath hers to Sarah Long, who already has acquired quite a supply herself.

Section II

Nancy James and Benjy Lemons, knowing that it will be needed, give to the junior class their intellect and industry to be distributed as it is needed

Section III

Toby Sue Johnson commits her serenity to that girl with boundless energy, Millie Holt.

Section IV

Belva Rumley bestows upon Janie Posey and Barbara Spach her fur hat and twinkling toes

Section V

To all newcomers Don Haug leaves his unforgettable Northern accent and to Clyde Bovender, his camera.

THE COMMUNITY OF THE FUTURE IS BEING BUILT TODAY

Section VI

Buddy Dorsett, that marvelous maestro, wills his musical fame to the most aspiring of all musicians, Donald Molsinger

Section VII

The brilliant team of Foltz, Brown, and Craver bestows upon Evelyn Crutchfield, Janet Lemons, and Lavona Willard its combined talents and efforts so that they can keep Gray in excellent working condition next year

Section VIII

Patsy Newsome leaves her debating ability to Anne Martiner, Jane McClain, and Geraldine Crim to be used to inoculate Bob Denham with the debater's virus

Section IX

Gaye Fox, Carole Jarrard, Pat Cook, Sylvia Brittain, Billie Butcher, Carol Adams, and Nancy Moore considered willing their diamonds but feel that they had better keep them for good luck

Section X

Charles Poteat bequeaths his educated toe to Richard Vestal in hope that he might boot the ball that beat Reynolds

Section XI

Barbara Brendle and Jane Hutchins place their incomparable artistic ability upon Martha Biles

Section XII

Ronnie Brown bestows his personality, looks, and over-all surplus of outstanding qualities to that amazing creature, Jack Shore

Section XIII

Doris Speaks Wall has expressed the desire that her acting ability be placed upon Connie Carlberg, with the hope that Connie might continue her rise to great heights
